

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: January 30, 2023

From: The Louisiana Fifth Circuit Court of Appeal

As part of the Louisiana Supreme Court's "Judges in the Classroom/Students in the Courtroom" initiative, on Tuesday, February 7, 2023, the Louisiana Fifth Circuit Court of Appeal will conduct oral arguments on several pending cases in Courtroom "A" of the 40th Judicial District Court, Parish of St. John the Baptist, State of Louisiana, in Edgard, Louisiana, beginning at 9:00 a.m. Civics, law, or government-related classes from each of the four high schools in St. John the Baptist Parish have been invited to attend and participate in this special court session. All court sessions are open to the public, space availability permitting.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS – INFORMATION

1. Parking: Counsel and the litigants desiring to attend oral arguments are encouraged to arrive at the courthouse at least thirty minutes prior to the time oral arguments are scheduled in order to secure appropriate parking, and to arrive in a timely manner in the courtroom where oral arguments will be conducted.
2. Seating: Only a limited amount of reserved seating will be available in the front of the courtroom where oral argument will be conducted for counsel of record and for the litigants desiring to attend oral argument. Seating will be available on a first-come, first-served basis, both in the reserved seating section of the courtroom and in the general seating section of the courtroom.
3. All cell phones and recording devices shall be turned completely off when inside of the courtroom where oral argument will be conducted.

4. No video recordings or audio recordings shall be taken while court is in session. Photographs by authorized persons for educational/public relations purposes may be allowed during this special court session.
5. Decorum and sanctity of the court proceedings shall be maintained at all times. Accordingly, there shall be no talking or unusual or unnecessary movements, distractions or disturbances in and around the courtroom while court is in session.
6. Both court and courthouse security personnel will be on hand to maintain security and enforce all rules of decorum and sanctity of the court proceedings while court is in session.
7. It is anticipated that a short recess will be taken between the cases being argued so as to allow persons to exit and enter the courtroom where oral argument will be conducted.
8. Any questions pertaining to court-related issues concerning this Special Docketing Order should be directed to the Clerk of Court's Office, Louisiana Fifth Circuit Court of Appeal – (504) 376-1400.
9. Any questions pertaining to courthouse-related issues concerning this Special Docketing Order should be directed to Hon. J. Sterling Snowdy, Chief Judge, 40th Judicial District Court, 2393 Highway 18, Suite 107, P.O. Box 308, Edgard, Louisiana 70049 – (985) 497-5580.

#

FIFTH CIRCUIT

COURT OF APPEAL

FIFTH CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEAL
A TRUE COPY OF DOCUMENTS AS
SAME APPEARS IN OUR RECORDS

Linda Wiseman
First Deputy, Clerk of Court

STATE OF LOUISIANA

SPECIAL DOCKETING ORDER

WHEREAS, as part of its community outreach efforts, the Louisiana Fifth Circuit Court of Appeal will conduct oral arguments at the 40th Judicial District Court, Parish of St. John the Baptist Parish, State of Louisiana, in Edgard, Louisiana, on the cases currently scheduled for oral arguments in Courtroom “A” at the Louisiana Fifth Circuit Court of Appeal on Tuesday, February 7, 2023 at 10:00 o’clock a.m.;

AND WHEREAS, a Special Docketing Order is required for such purposes;

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that oral arguments will be conducted in the following cases on Tuesday, February 7, 2023 in Courtroom “A” of the 40th Judicial District Court, Parish of St. John the Baptist, State of Louisiana, located at 2393 Highway 18, Edgard, Louisiana 70049, beginning at 9:00 o’clock a.m., to-wit:

1. No. 22-KA-261 – State of Louisiana v. Ryk Frickey

The parties in this cases shall be allowed a period of time for oral arguments not to exceed 30 minutes, divided equally between opposing sides. Counsel are not required to use all of their allotted time.

2. No. 22-CA-253 – Jose Flores Moran v. AmTrust North America and Jacques-IMO Café, LLC

The parties in this cases shall be allowed a period of time for oral arguments not to exceed 30 minutes, divided equally between opposing sides. Counsel are not required to use all of their allotted time.

3. No. 22-KA-371 – State of Louisiana v. Calvin King

This case will be submitted on briefs without oral arguments.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS – INFORMATION

1. Parking: Counsel and the litigants desiring to attend oral arguments are encouraged to arrive at the courthouse at least thirty minutes prior to the time oral arguments are scheduled in order to secure appropriate parking, and to arrive in a timely manner in the courtroom where oral arguments will be conducted.
2. Seating: Only a limited amount of reserved seating will be available in the front of the courtroom where oral arguments will be conducted for counsel involved in oral arguments and for the litigants desiring to attend oral arguments. Seating will be available only on a first-come, first-served basis, both in the reserved seating section of the courtroom and in the general seating section of the courtroom.
3. All cell phones and recording devices shall be turned completely off when inside of the courtroom where oral arguments will be conducted.
4. No video recordings or audio recordings shall be taken while court is in session. Photographs by authorized persons for educational/public relations purposes will be allowed during this special court session.
5. Decorum and sanctity of the court proceedings shall be maintained at all times. Accordingly, there shall be no talking or unusual or unnecessary movements, distractions or disturbances in and around the courtroom while court is in session.
6. Both court and courthouse security personnel will be on hand to maintain security and enforce all rules of decorum and sanctity of the court proceedings while court is in session.
7. It is anticipated that a short recess will be taken between the cases being argued so as to allow persons to exit and enter the courtroom where oral arguments will be conducted.
8. Any questions pertaining to court-related issues concerning this Special Docketing Order should be directed to the Clerk of Court's Office, Louisiana Fifth Circuit Court of Appeal – (504) 376-1400.
9. Any questions pertaining to courthouse-related issues concerning this Special Docketing Order should be directed to Hon. J. Sterling Snowdy, Chief Judge, 40th Judicial District Court, 2393 Highway 18, Suite 107, P.O. Box 308, Edgard, Louisiana 70049 – (985) 497-5580.

Gretna, Louisiana, this 18th day of January, 2023.

FOR THE COURT:

SMC

Chief Judge Susan M. Chehardy