By order of the Court, effective September 16, 2026, Local Rule 9-2 of the Louisiana Fifth Circuit Court of Appeal has been adopted to read as follows:

LOCAL RULE 9-2: ORAL ARGUMENT IN DOCKETED WRITS

Supervisory writ applications assigned to the court’s docket shall be submitted for decision without oral argument unless a party timely files a written request for oral argument. The request must be filed as directed in the court’s order assigning the matter to the docket, but no later than thirty days after the date of the order.
